

Rappahannock Indivisible – We the People

May 17, 2017

Bob and Tina began the meeting with a call and response “This is what democracy looks like.”

Business meeting

- A. Add names and email addresses if you have not been receiving our notifications.
- B. Post cards are $1; purchase from the basket being passed around.
- C. Steering committee introductions
- D. Announcement: Wittman town hall in Woodbridge 5/18. 3 NN Indivisible members have been invited to the town hall; other members are gathering outside the venue.
- E. Carolyn announced that Indivisible Lower Lancaster County is sponsoring a girl to attend Girls State this year. The scholarship is fully funded. The group hopes to make this an ongoing service.
- F. Based on the April meeting, a suggested focus for this group is to work with other area groups on job creation in the NN area. If interested, speak to <<NAME NEEDED>>.

Program: Although Margaret Ransone was invited, including by certified letter, no response was received and the certified letter was refused. However, both Democratic candidates for the 99th District Delegate seat attended: Francis Edwards and Vivian “Viv” Messner.

Both were given 10 minutes to speak, then members of the assembly asked questions to which both candidates responded. An energetic but civil atmosphere prevailed.

The primary election is June 13.

Next meeting: June 21: Richard Montague speaking on fracking

July meeting will be on gerrymandering
